Mid-Hudson St. Patrick's Parade Committee Celebrates Its 50th Anniversary

Committee selects long-time community volunteer Kevin Strommer as 2027 Grand Marshal and Honors First Grand Marshal

GOSHEN, NY – The Mid-Hudson St. Patrick's Parade Committee is proud to announce that Kevin Strommer has been selected as the 2027 Grand Marshal of the Mid-Hudson St. Patrick's Parade, while John McCarey, the parade's first Grand Marshal, will be recognized as 50th Anniversary Grand Marshal Emeritus during the organization's golden anniversary celebration.

The 50th Anniversary Mid-Hudson St. Patrick's Parade will be held Sunday, March 14, 2027, in the Village of Goshen, marking five decades of celebrating Irish heritage, faith, community, and tradition throughout Orange County and the Hudson Valley.

The selection of Kevin Strommer reflects a lifetime of service to country, community, church, and Irish organizations. A Goshen native, Strommer served in the United States Navy Submarine Service before joining the New York State Police. Following his retirement, he continued a life dedicated to service through leadership roles in numerous community and charitable organizations.

Strommer is a Past President of the Mid-Hudson St. Patrick's Parade Committee, Orange County President of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Past Grand Knight of Washingtonville Knights of Columbus Council 5890, a member of the Catholic War Veterans and Veterans of Foreign Wars, and an active parish volunteer at St. Mary's Church in Washingtonville. Throughout his years of leadership, he has championed causes supporting veterans, individuals with special needs, Special Olympics athletes, and numerous charitable initiatives throughout the region.

"Kevin embodies the values that have guided our parade for fifty years: faith, family, service, and pride in our Irish heritage," said the Mid-Hudson St. Patrick's Parade Committee. "His dedication to helping others and strengthening our community makes him an outstanding choice to lead this historic anniversary parade."

Adding even greater significance to the milestone celebration, the committee will honor John McCarey, the parade's first Grand Marshal, by naming him 50th Anniversary Grand Marshal Emeritus.

As the inaugural Grand Marshal, McCarey helped establish a tradition that has grown into one of the Hudson Valley's premier St. Patrick's Day celebrations. His leadership and commitment helped lay the foundation for five decades of successful parades and community engagement.

"It is fitting that as we celebrate fifty years, we recognize the individual who helped begin this remarkable journey," the committee stated. "Honoring John alongside Kevin symbolizes the connection between our parade's proud history and its bright future."

The parade committee hopes to welcome past Grand Marshals, former committee members, volunteers, sponsors, and supporters from throughout the parade's history to participate in the anniversary festivities.

As we prepare for this historic milestone, we are asking for your support. Your donation helps fund parade operations, public safety, insurance, bands, and special activities.

No gift is too small, and every contribution supports the continued success of the Mid-Hudson St. Patrick's Parade. Your generosity helps preserve this treasured community tradition and ensures that future generations can continue to gather, celebrate, and take pride in their heritage for years to come.
